TWELVE NAMED FOR DERBY

FAIR WEATHER AND FAST TRACK PROMISED FOR GREAT LOUISVILLE RACE TODAY.

Record-Breaking Crowd Expected at Churchill Downs This Afternoon—Notable Visitors Arrive from Distant Points—Much Enthusiasm Prevails.

Louisville, Ky., May 9.—Nothing has apparently been left undone that would contribute to a successful opening of the racing season tomorrow at Churchill Downs. Interest in the sport here this year is certainly greater than ever and it is the general opinion that one of the largest crowds in the history of the sport will witness the running of the Derby. All the stands are filled and every additional train is swelling the number of visitors. It is predicted that the crowd that will view the great three-year-old race will number close to 50,000. Ideal weather is predicted and will be a factor in the attendance. Of course interest centers in the Derby. Twelve are named to go in it, but opinion as to the likely winner is generally confined to Ten Point, Yankee Notions and Foundation. The latter is the hope and mainstay of the Kentuckians and will be supported loyally. The smart set, as a rule, predict that Ten Point and Yankee Notions will be fighting it out for the winner's portion of the stake. H. K. Knapp's son of Yankee and Fairie Queen has gained extensive support during the past few days. His sparkling dead heat with Kudofo at Lexington entitles him to considerable respect and if Ten Point and Foundation should essay fast pacemaking tactics tomorrow it is the general idea that Yankee Notions would be vastly benefited. Some mystery seems to surround Leochares and there is some doubt even now if his owner will decide on starting him. John W. Schorr, his owner, is of the opinion that the colt is a sprinter, but young Schorr believes him to be of Derby calibre and his advice may prevail when it comes to deciding the question as to whether he will start. Those entered for the big race and the jockeys engaged to pilot them are:

Table listing horses and jockeys for the Derby, including names like Jimmie Gill, Florin Park, Gowell, Leochares, Spring Tom, Sam Hirsch, Prince Hernias, Lord Marshall, Donerail, Foundation, Ten Point, and Yankee Notions, along with their respective jockeys and weights.

If these twelve should go to the post, the Derby will be worth $7,000 gross. Of this $700 goes to the second horse and $200 to the third. With the entrance and starting fees deducted, the event will be worth $5,875 net to the winner. This would make it the richest Kentucky Derby ever run. All the probable starters in the big event were out for exercise today at Churchill Downs and Douglas Park. Ten Point, Leochares and Donerail are quartered at Douglas Park, while the rest are housed at Churchill Downs. All of them were breezed, but the only two that went better than a two-minute gait were Jimmie Gill and Gowell. The latter worked five furlongs at the Downs in 1:07 1/2, running the first half in 28 1/2, while Jimmie Gill went an easy mile in 1:47.

There will be a greater sprinkling of eastern turf men on hand to see tomorrow's Derby than ever before gathered on a race track in Kentucky. Among the visiting turfmen of national reputation are August Belmont, chairman of the Jockey Club; F. R. Hitchcock, Phil J. Dwyer, H. K. Knapp, J. G. Rollinsbee, M. H. Sanford, James Butler, S. Street, R. W. Selman and William Bird. This is Mr. Belmont's last appearance at the Derby, and he will be accompanied by Mrs. Belmont. With Mr. Butler will come Price McKinney. These two are the heaviest stockholders in the Jockey Club.

All the members of the Kentucky State Racing Commission will be in attendance, including Chairman Milton Young, J. N. Camden, George J. Long, J. Hart Taylor and Charles F. Grainger, who is the president of the New Louisville Jockey Club and racing steward for the meeting. Secretary J. Pelham Johnston, of the organization, will also be in attendance. Mr. Grainger will represent the racing commission during the racing at the local track this spring.

The pari-mutuel machines already in place at the Downs are divided up as follows: Three $25 machines, one straight, one place and one show; three $10 machines, one straight, one place and one show; seven $5 machines, three straight, two place and two show, and twenty-one $2 machines, eight straight, six place and seven show. Three of the latter machines will be in operation only on the Derby. One straight, one place and one show machines will be ready for business at one o'clock tomorrow afternoon to sell $2 tickets on the Derby and after that race these three machines will be out of commission. The remaining twenty-seven machines will be operated during the entire meeting.

There will be two money changing boxes in operation for the convenience of patrons of the pari-mutuels and twenty-eight cashiers will be in line to cash winning tickets. The first race will be called at 2:30 p. m. sharp, each day. Superintendent Frank Keegan is hard at work sprinkling and rolling the track and the indications now are that it will be in record-breaking condition at the hour the Kentucky Derby is run tomorrow afternoon. Prominent among the arrivals to see the Derby run off is the well-known eastern bookmaker, I. Ham, and the veteran turfman, George Morgan. The latter owned, with Col. J. P. Chinn, Leonatus, which won the Derby of 1883. R. C. Benson, the Kansas City trainer, who has been engaged to handle the big racing siring of James Butler, will be here on Derby day with Mr. Butler. He is coming here to engage fifteen men and twelve boys to take the thirty-eight yearlings Mr. Butler bought from the Keene estate to Long Island, where he will train them at the Butler farm. He already has four horses there and is also taking along his own filly, Odella, which will make forty-three horses that he will have in training. F. J. Hayes sent fourteen of his horses from Lexington to Douglas Park, including Jabot and Destino. The rest of his string will come today from that place. D. N. Prewitt is an arrival to see the Derby. He owns T. M. Green, Mabel B. Eubanks and other horses in trainer James Everman's stable. He reports that Evergreen, the dam of the two racers named, recently foaled a handsome brown filly by Knight of the Thistle, the sire of Worth, the Kentucky Derby winner of last season. Prewitt will mate Evergreen this spring to Dick Finnell, the sire of H. C. Hallenbeck's good three-year-old, Frederick I. F. J. Miles arrived today with his selling plater E. Jockey Frank Teahan came with Miles. His old performer, Falcaida, will be shipped here from Lexington within the next few days. Thomas Campbell headed a big delegation that came from New Orleans to see the running of the Derby. Walter O. Farmer arrived tonight from Nashville.

JUDGE BURKE WRITES OF CHARLES KOHLER

New York, May 8.—From a man who is always in a position to know what is going on in turf circles I learned a few days ago of the sale of Mr. Belmont's French-bred yearlings to Mr. Kohler, and your readers were duly informed by wire. When I asked for confirmation of the report Mr. Kohler admitted it and invited me to call and see him before he sailed for Europe. He is to leave here on the Caronia on May 10, and will be absent until the middle of July.

Charles Kohler is not only a remarkably successful business man (the manufacturer of pianos for the trade and has more than 2,000 employees), but he is as quick as lightning. The deal for the Belmont yearlings was completed within half an hour after W. L. Powers had asked him how he would like to purchase them. "I was looking over the list of Mr. Belmont's mares," said Mr. Kohler to me, "and greatly admired them. He has some of the best mares in the world." "When do you look over the list?" I asked. "At night," was his answer; "for I do not leave my home more than one night in the month." "How long have you been interested in racing?" was my next question. "Ever since I was twenty-one years of age," he answered me, "and every Futurity ever run except the last one, which took place at Saratoga and was won by Novelly, which horse later I bought. I saw every Suburban ever run. I went to the track with Edward McElmood the day his horse, Gen. Monroe, won the first Suburban. I used to help old 'Mac' in figuring out the weights his horses should carry."

This was a surprise to me, for I had thought that Mr. Kohler's taste for racing was of recent origin. He says that it is his only form of recreation. "Gen. Monroe won the first Suburban, which was in 1884. Proctor Knott won the first Futurity, which was in 1888. From Mr. Kohler's own statement, therefore, his turf experiences as a looker-on date back thirty years. And yet he owns no horse. He has never heard of him in the turf world, though about four years ago he raced a small stable called the Southside Stable, with Besom as the chief horse in it, and Frank Taylor trained for him. It was at this time that the late Herman Rosenthal was sued by Mr. Kohler for either his own money, $2,000, or the profits of a $2,000 commission which Mr. Kohler had entrusted to Rosenthal as a commissioner to be placed on Besom, which, when I thought at that time that Mr. Kohler (whom I never met until two years later) had remarkable pluck to go into court despite the publicity that would be attached to the property of the noted local racing man, Novelly, Hampton Court, etc., over the jumps, but not until Novelly had won on the flat with high weight and proved himself the best horse in training there. But when he lost the coveted prize, the race now appears to be a failure. Zeus has never raced in France, Hampton Court became the property of Harry La Montagne, FitzHerbert never ran there, but went to the stud in the spring of 1911, and his colts well filled the $300 per mare. Uncle, purchased by Mr. Kohler about four years ago, and kept for a time at his Ramapo Farm, was sent to France, where his owner also has about twenty broodmares. Some of the Ramapo Stud mares were sold in Germany in the summer of 1912 all the Castleton fillies were sold for a lump sum to Mr. Kohler, and most of them are now at Newmarket, where some have won. Soon after that he bought the stallion Superman, whose two-year-old daughter Umbria ran third this week in England.

In November last Mr. Kohler cabled Hildreth that $50,000 had been placed in his account in a Paris bank, upon which was to draw for the purpose of reinforcing his stable with French horses for flat racing, and this season the New York turfman has won some races with several of the horses then bought in England, with the exception of the racing season there, his two-year-olds in Joseph Butler's care at Newmarket have won several races, and no doubt they will win more. Two of them were recently brought back to America and Mr. Kohler told me today that his three-year-old Beethoven, by Broomstick, out of Sans Peur, is now on his way here. "He is a fair three-year-old," was his comment.

Six months back Mr. Kohler began to purchase as much stock in the Saratoga track as he could lay hands on, and he is now, I hear, the owner of a block of 1,200 shares, or nearly one-fourth of the total stock, and John W. May, Louis Barber, James P. Ross, G. W. J. Bissell and Will Young, J. O. Keene sent over Bonne Chance, Merode, Lodoña and Hinata, from the Castelnau stable, along with Jack Baker's horses, Helios and Imperator re-start before the Latonia or Saratoga meetings. The stables of E. R. Bradley, J. C. Milam and Clay Bros. will be sent to Louisville tomorrow morning, while those of Gallaher Bros., Ed. W. Moore, mined here with a number of others that will not Mode Nicoll and Dillard Hill will go to Canada next week.

Lon Jones has reached the Downs from the National Stock Farm with three horses. Jones is a local turfman who raced the speedy Azylade as a two-year-old. National Stock Farm was once the property of the noted local racing firm, Scoggins Bros., who owned in partnership with Sam Bryant the famous Proctor Knott. Jones, for a time, mated his thoroughbred mares to breed mules. He is now breeding to thoroughbreds. This season his mares went to the court of Sempronius and Sir Hoon at George J. Long's Bashford Manor Farm.

LEXINGTON STRONG FOR FOUNDATION.

Lexington, Ky., May 9.—Lexington will send to Louisville tomorrow the largest delegation that ever traveled out of the blue grass region to see a Kentucky Derby race at Churchill Downs. In addition to the regular trains on three railroads, there will be a Derby special—the Foundation special it will be called, for nearly all who go on it will be rooting for Charles McKenna's Nasturtium colt to win the Derby. The race now appears to be between Ten Point, Foundation and Yankee Notions, and it is likely that they will be supported in the betting in the order named, but it is safe to conclude that seven out of every ten dollars wagered from this section will go on Foundation.

Nearly all of the regulars and a number of citizens who prefer to avoid the crowds as much as possible took trains for Louisville last night and today. This morning there was a special train of seven cars out of here and among the stables that were shipped on it were those of T. P. Hayes, Jack Baker, John Lowe, Catesby Woodford, Willie Park, John W. May, Louis Barber, James P. Ross, G. W. J. Bissell and Will Young, J. O. Keene sent over Bonne Chance, Merode, Lodoña and Hinata, from the Castelnau stable, along with Jack Baker's horses, Helios and Imperator re-start before the Latonia or Saratoga meetings. The stables of E. R. Bradley, J. C. Milam and Clay Bros. will be sent to Louisville tomorrow morning, while those of Gallaher Bros., Ed. W. Moore, mined here with a number of others that will not Mode Nicoll and Dillard Hill will go to Canada next week.

lings in France, while it is his latest noteworthy exploit, will not by any means be his last, if I am any judge of intentions, for he is still keen to own a fine stock farm. Up to this time his thoroughbreds number just 146, as he informed me today. Stables in England, France and America, a breeding stud in France and one in America, make Mr. Kohler one of our most important personages in the turf world.

Thus far his colors are unknown to New Yorkers, but they will remain so, for there is a stable of good two-year-olds at the Coner Island Jockey Club track, under the care of "Dave" Leary, and when the New York season begins on Memorial Day at Belmont Park they will be seen with the colors up. The question of a jockey to ride is now disturbing Mr. Kohler. As is well known, he had hoped to be able to utilize Shilling, who rode for Hildreth for several seasons, but that was found impracticable as far as the French and English turf were concerned. Last year Shilling rode for H. C. Hallenbeck and, as the turf world knows, he was suspended at Havre de Grace after a whip fight with Digginis in a race there. So far Shilling's license has not been formally asked for, but it will be, and Mr. Kohler has hopes that the boy may be permitted to do his riding.

I saw Shilling today and ascertained from him some interesting facts, which I will not before cognizant of. Though he today looked the picture of health, and can ride at 110 pounds, Shilling told me that soon after the Havre de Grace meeting he began to lose flesh so fast that he weighed at one time only ninety-six pounds. This for a youth of such strength as he is normally possessed of was certainly something to worry over. "I was so weak that I went into a hospital at Cleveland," said Shilling, "and there underwent an operation. I was told by the operating physician that a growth of some kind was cut out of my left side, below the rib, and I at once began to recover, though I was two months in the hospital. The young man is now residing at Shoenberg Bay, is working horses for Mr. Kohler for living wages, is living a quiet life in company with his wife, and is getting into the best possible condition for riding if the license commission will grant him a license. It is said that both Shilling and McCasgart will be riding during the Belmont Park meeting.

Mr. Kohler spoke as follows in behalf of Shilling: "At the time that he was suspended for foul riding he was in great mental trouble. A tragedy in his family, in which a near relative was in great danger, made it necessary for the jockey to earn as much money as possible in as short a time as possible. I am of the opinion that if Shilling, McCasgart, or any other jockey whose license I have given another chance, with racing under new conditions, they will not again invite punishment, or if they do let them be ruled off forever if proven guilty of foul riding. I believe that it is a good thing for a trainer or a good jockey to be helpful to the race tracks and a drawing card. A popular jockey means good gate money and much enthusiasm when he wins over the land the condition and prospects of a jockey who, however, understands, have been punished for foul riding many times, yet who have received their licenses and apparently are reformed characters."

No doubt some people who have read turf romances would expect to hear of the owner of a Derby colt vortise as a great swell, living a life of splendor surrounded by admiring friends in his club, and calling upon his fashionable associates in a richly-furnished automobile. I called yesterday upon one owner of a Derby favorite whose life is not depicted above. It was Anthony L. Aste, owner of Ten Point. As I wrote to you in the winter, several months ago, Mr. Aste is a business man. With him it is his business first and his race horses second. Perhaps when his stable was much larger than it is now he gave less personal attention to the details of his business. But now I can testify that, while all over the land the condition and prospects of a Derby colt Ten Point are the cause of much gossip and some anxiety, the state of mind of that colt's owner is apparently as placid as if the horse was of no more value than a milk cow. He was busy computing a recipe to be used in composition, and the exact elements of this he alone knew. He was of course proud of the fact that a colt which he had bred should have become a public idol, but while most others are or were worrying about Ten Point's physical well being, the man who had most at stake did not appear at all perturbed. He could, by sending a ten-word telegram, have transferred over the land the condition and prospects of a Derby favorite to someone else's shoulders by simply accepting the price which more than one man was willing to pay for him, but, like a good poker player, he is standing pat, and so I left him, but not until he had pointed to a brand new racing jacket, his colors, "brown, with red and white stripes on sleeves, red cap," and said "If the colt wins the Derby those colors will be sacred and may be locked up in a safe." And so, after all the talk, the owner and breeder of Ten Point has sentiment, and the right sort of pride. JOSEPH J. BURKE.

WILL USE LATONIA MACHINES.

Baltimore, Md., May 9.—Arrangements have been made by the promoters of the coming race meeting at Electric Park with the Latonia management for the use of ten pari-mutuel machines. The machines are to be shipped from the Kentucky track next week. At present every stall within the confines of the enclosures is occupied. A five and a half furrows chute is being constructed on the backstretch, while the track has been widened by 20 feet at different points, making it safe. The far turn has been improved so as to reduce the abruptness of the turn out of the backstretch.

MUTUELS GROW IN FAVOR

INCREASING POPULARITY OF NEW SYSTEM REFLECTED IN PIMLICO PATRONAGE.

Halter Men Active and Several Selling Race Winners Are Bid Up—Captain Swanson Wins Handicap.

Baltimore, Md., May 9.—That the pari-mutuels are growing in popularity at Pimlico was evidenced this afternoon by the large attendance. The crowd showed a big increase over any that turned out during the present week and speculation was keen. Well balanced fields were carded for all six of the races and interesting contests resulted. The Arlington Selling Handicap, a dash of one mile, was provided as a feature. The race furnished a good contest, with Captain Swanson first here a length in advance of Elwah, which beat El Oro a similar distance for second place. In the steeplechase Flying Yankee made his maiden effort and although he failed to place, he showed a promising performance. He is a rapid going fence and broke appeared afraid to let him run at top speed. He repeatedly took the horse up, with the result when the final test came Flying Yankee faltered. It is a safe prediction that this jumper can beat those that finished in front of him this afternoon.

For the first time during the meeting the haltermen were active. After Wooden Shoes won the opening dash he was boosted to $2,000 by J. Johnson, owner of the Quincey Stable, who secured him at that figure. When Magazine won the second race Albert Simons bid up the old sprinter from $400 to $800 and bought him. Captain F. M. Walker retaliated by claiming the three-year-old Ambrose out of the race for $820. Ambrose ran in Mrs. Payne Whitney's colors and was trained by Simons. After Captain Swanson won the fifth race, Simons was again on hand and bid up the winner from $500 to $1,005, at which figure he was retained. Simons also boosted Pardon from $800 to $1,035 and H. G. Bedwell retained the colt at the latter figure.

Being a breeder, a trainer and a sportsman on the various Canadian tracks, reports that applications for stall room at Toronto and Montreal are fully up to the demand of last season. This is surprising, considering that Canada will have opposition from the metropolitan tracks this spring. N. MacFarlane, who has several steeplechasers at Pimlico in charge of former jockey Truman, was an arrival from Montreal this morning. He reports a great number of King's Platers in training at Blue Bonnets this spring. The report that the jumper Jingo had died proved unfounded. William Hogan, who arrived from Belmont Park, says that the horse is training well and doing finely. Jingo was purchased from Dr. Crumwell by J. F. Flanagan for a stiff figure last fall. News of the death of Tom Wilson, a steeplechase jockey in the employ of A. Henry Higginson, reached here today. Wilson died at South Lincoln, Mass., a few weeks ago.

William Cahill disposed of the stallion Argonaut this morning to Jerry Bird of Harrisburg, Pa., who will use the horse to mate with cold blooded mares. Barney Schreiber was an arrival from Sheepshead Bay this morning. He reports that he has about closed a deal for the sale of the twelve horses he has at the bay. William C. Daly was also a visitor at Pimlico today. J. O. Talbot has released Jockey Mondon and the latter has left for Toronto, Can. Mondon will probably ride for the Dymont stable this season. Starter Dade lifted the suspension against J. Wilson so that the boy could ride Outaway in the Chabough Memorial at Pimlico tomorrow.

CHARLES KOHLER BOUND FOR EUROPE.

New York, May 9.—On the same steamer which brought over Harry Payne Whitney's Whisk Broom last week were two fillies by Hippodrome and Superman, owned by Charles Kohler. They are now at Ranapo, the nursery of their owner, and will be used in strengthening his breeding establishment. Kohler's recent acquisition of seventeen French-bred yearlings from August Belmont, Mr. Kohler is considerably increasing his stock of aristocratic youngsters.

Kohler has at present in England fourteen two-year-olds and one three-year-old. They are under the care of Joseph Butters, at Newmarket, Sam Hildreth, who looks after Mr. Kohler's interests in France, has in charge twenty mares and two stallions and twenty-one yearlings. The latter are at Mr. Kohler's stock farms in Normandy. The majority of them are American-bred.

Mr. Kohler sails Saturday for Europe, but will return in time for the Saratoga meeting, for which he has made a number of entries. His horses will also run at Belmont Park, but he unfortunately will be unable to return in time for the opening of the metropolitan season.

This New York sportsman is one of those whose chief delight in owning thoroughbreds is to see them bred and present when they race. He has at Sheepshead Bay twenty two-year-olds and two three-year-olds that are being rapidly rounded into shape for the racing in this neighborhood.

TRACK CONDITIONS CHANGE AT ALAN.

Spokane, Wash., May 9.—Rainy weather and a light attendance caused the withdrawal of two bookmakers from the Alan ring today. John Troy and Edwin T. Fryer dropped out, leaving six in line. The track, while sloppy, remained in good condition.

Admiral's Daughter, one of the get of Von Tromp, which in his racing days was a good race horse, was among the day's winners.

Glimi, the favorite of the fourth race, went to the post sore in the shoulders, giving her the appearance when parading by the stand of being quite lame. Glimi won easily enough.

Horses are still coming, the stable of Charles Ross having arrived from Denver this morning. He had eight in the lot, including Sir Ormonde and Emerald Isle.

A. Neill, of Lewistown, Idaho, also came with his string. He has the useful plater Regina Arvi.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

W. R. Engstrom has joined the ranks of the layers at Coeur d'Alene.

It is reported that Joseph McLennan will succeed Fred Gerhardt as clerk of the scales at Woodbine.

Jockey Mondon has severed his connection with the J. O. Talbott stable and will go to Canada to ride free lance.

Fred Rehberger, secretary of the Brooklyn Jockey Club, has just returned to New York from Havre de Grace, where he says the racing was the best seen in Maryland in many years.

Thomas Fortune Ryan is no longer breeding to Monsieur de L'Orme at Oak Ridge Farm and has put the imported stallion Sea King, by Persimmon, at the head of his stud. The first crop of Sea King's yearlings at the farm are showing great promise.

ANSWERS TO QUERIES.

L. H. E., Chicago. Rudolfo paid 1 to 10 straight in the dead heat race.

L. E. M., Hamilton, Ont. The bet on Ringling was a draw. The horse that was entered and won was Kingling. The filly Ringling, was not at Lexington, but was at Baltimore when the race at Lexington was run.

J. B. M., Chicago. In cases of dead heats the bet on both sides is added together and divided equally between the parties to the bet. If you had, say, $2 on a 10 to 1 horse that made a dead heat, the result would be $22, of which you would take $11 and the bookmaker the other $11.

BROWN CASE AGAIN POSTPONED.

AMBROSE, probably shod, showed much the most early speed, but was tired. HORACE E. closed as big gap early and finished fast and the same applied to BARRAN. U. BUSTER finished close up. BUCKTHORN led under restraint most of the way and responded with a good burst of speed when called on after taking the last fence and was going away at the end. HIMATION fenced well and showed much speed all the way, but was tiring at the end. OLD SALT was a fine fence and was a forward contender until in the last quarter, where he tired, but outstayed FLYING YANKEE. The latter was unruly and hard to ride and was repeatedly taken back, but appears like a high-class jumping prospect. SIR CLEGGES was pulled-up in the last half. SARWOOD fell at the eighth jump.

I'M HERE
at Pimlico, right on the ground. Came on from the old banking track at Washington, where the good things are put in shape to win during the Baltimore meeting. I have tabbed the sleepers—ready to win—and can promise all my friends a good chance to clean up Saturday, May 17, when a big one will go over. One of the cleverest trainers at Pimlico will handle this. I want 100 people who will treat me right—after the race. I trust you to give me one horse, then its up to you to treat me right. Address immediately by letter, no postal cards.
